#1

Are we there yet?

traveling in 4 or more countries

Purpose: to present covers that have traveled in several countries and to identify the markings received. It is a fun exhibit with unusual covers.

Scope: Each cover must have marking from four countries. One has six identifiable and maybe two more. Country, for this exhibit, includes a foreign nation's post office in a second country.

Challenge: First, to find mail that has traveled in many countries.
Second, to decipher the markings in order to present the chronological story of movement.

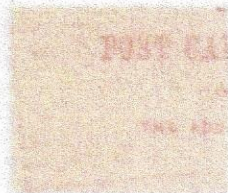

Organization: Covers are ordered by the date mailed. Covers with special or interesting context have text below the cover.
